

Yachts to be Taught Naval Tactics.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Some time ago the Seawanhakee Yacht Club of New York made a request to the Navy Department that a naval officer be detailed to visit New York for the purpose of giving the club practical instructions in the management of its vessels, with a view of increasing its proficiency to such an extent that the fleet may be relied upon as a naval reserve. In compliance with this request Commander McCalla has been detailed to this duty.

The National Debt.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The following debt statement was issued to-day: Interest bearing debt, principal, $1,162,571,112; interest, $1,713,141; total, $1,164,284,253. Debt on which interest has ceased since maturity, principal, $6,226,275; interest, $198,717; total, $7,124,992. Debt bearing no interest, $586,798,267. Total debt, principal, $1,692,295,656; interest, $1,911,859. Total, $1,704,207,515. Cash items available for reduction of debt, $268,123,971; less reserve held for redemption of United States bonds, $1,000,000,000; total, $386,123,971, net. Cash in treasury, $18,599,983. Debt, less cash in treasury, April 1, 1887, $1,318,223,588. Decrease of debt during the month of March, $12,808,467. Unavailable for reduction of debt, $26,752,672. Total cash in treasury, also shown by the Treasurer-General's account, $453,117,086.

The Chinese Indemnity.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—An erroneous impression has obtained concerning the prospective departure of the Chinese Minister for Europe. It has been said the Minister would take his entire suite with him to remain an indefinite period, and the Legation building would be given up. The lease of the Stewart castle will not expire until next November, and the family of Senator Stewart do not wish possession at that time. Chang Yen Hoon will take it for another year. He will leave America on the 20th of this month, accompanied by certainly not more than half of his suite, the other remaining here.

THE CHINESE INDEMNITY.

A few days ago Chang Yen Hoon called at the State Department by appointment, when Secretary Bayard handed him a treasury draft for $147,000, the indemnity voted by Congress for the benefit of the sufferers by the raid made on the Chinese at Rock Springs, in Wyoming Territory, one year ago. There are 600 Chinese entitled to the benefits of this fund. The distribution of the money will be intrusted by the Minister to a commission appointed from among the beneficiaries. In answer to a question addressed to one of the principal members of the Legation to-day as to whether it would not require some supervision from here to cause the proper distribution of funds, he said: "Oh, no; law and custom in China make the collection of debts an easy matter and the temptations to dishonesty were reduced to a minimum. The Chinese who came to this country brought all their traditions and customs with them and the most obscure of the sufferers in the Wyoming affair could get what was due him without any overlooking from here."

In the Commons.

LONDON, April 12.—The House of Commons resumed its sitting this afternoon. After Speaker Peel had thanked the House for its indulgence during his illness, Attorney-General Holmes reopened the debate on the Irish Crimes Act Amendment Bill. He contended that the measure was a fair and reasonable one and that none of its provisions would interfere with the Constitution or public rights. The House should remember, Holmes argued, that society in Ireland was in a state of disorganization; that crimes were undetected, and that the people seemed to sympathize with criminals and thwarted attempts to obtain evidence in cases where the evidence was clearly against the prisoners. Juries refused to convict, so that the system of trial by jury had absolutely broken down in Ireland. It was absurd to say that crime in Ireland should go unpunished rather than that such an effectual means as the changing of venue should be taken to secure the due administration of law. Holmes hoped that it would not be necessary if the bill passed to have frequent recourse to a change of venue. [Derisive Parnellite cheers.]

Right Hon. Hugh C. Childers said that although he supported the amendment to the bill he admitted that some of the bill's provisions would not be objectionable if they were made part of the general law for both Ireland and England; but those features of the proposed law which the Government especially intended to apply to Ireland were unwarranted and would be found to evoke disorder instead of remedying existing evils. Why propose coercion when there was no increase of crime shown in Ireland? Before last election at least ninety Conservative members of Parliament had declared against any further coercion.

There were not fifty members in the House of Commons to-night. The debate on the Crimes bill will go on formally until Thursday, when the House will fill up again. Gladstone will revive interest in Parliament by speaking on Friday. The Government is anxious to reach the second reading of the Crimes bill without resorting to the cloture, and will not insist upon a division before the 22d instant. Speaker Peel has intimated to Mr. Gladstone that if the head of the Government demands the cloture, after a reasonable period of debate, he will always deem it his duty to acquiesce, and that this rule will apply to any Government.
